INTRODUCTION

The Toledo Federation of Art Societies, in collaboration with the Toledo Museum of Art, welcomes you to the 85th Annual Toledo Area Artists Exhibition. The exhibition features works of art created in the past four years by persons who have resided in Northwest Ohio or Southeast Michigan. Jurors Wes Hunting, a glass artist and owner of Hunting Studio Glass in Princeton, Wisconsin, and Susan Wilczak, Director of Exhibitions and Collections at the Krasal Art Center in St. Joseph, Michigan, selected the 121 works from a pool of 808 entries.

An exhibition of this magnitude requires careful preparation. The delegates of the Toledo Federation of Art Societies and its Trustees have devoted much time and effort in its planning. We would like to recognize and thank the following for their contributions to the exhibition: Roger M. Berkowitz, director of the Toledo Museum of Art and a long-time supporter of the Toledo Federation of Art Societies; Claude Fixler, installation coordinator, and Katie Dilworth, exhibitions assistant, who served as liaison to the Toledo Federation of Art Societies; Russ Curry, Steve Walbolt, Andre Sepetavec, and Alez Hlousek, art handlers; Rochelle Slosser Smith, graphic design coordinator; Kathy Gee, Toni Gonzalez, and Julia Chytil, the Toledo Museum of Art Visual Resource Collection; Nicole Rivette and Karen Serota, the Registrar's office; and the artists, whose creative efforts make this exhibition possible.

This year's exhibition is being held in conjunction with the 100th Anniversary Athena Art Society Exhibition. Athena Society was a founding member of the Toledo Federation of Art Societies, and we are proud to celebrate their accomplishments by including works by their members within our show. All of the organizations that make up the Toledo Federation of Art Societies serve as gathering places and sources of support for many of the artists in this year's show. It is through their efforts, with the guidance of the Toledo Museum of Art, that this show is possible.

We hope you enjoy it.

Susan Carr
President
Toledo Federation of Art Societies
